Hon Dan'l. St. Jose.

Dear Sir, I write to ask you to excuse me from my duties at the Mint tomorrow. We are in great affliction. Our poor little baby died shortly after its birth — my poor wife is heart broken & in quite a critical condition. I am completely worn out if you would kindly allow me to take the three days I have remaining of my holiday

Dear Sir,

I write to ask you to excuse me from my duties at the Mint tomorrow. We are in great affliction. Our poor little baby died shorty after its birth & my poor wife is heart broken & in quite a critical condition. I am completely worn out & if you would kindly allow me to take the three days I have remaining of my holiday I should feel deeply grateful. I have written to Mr. Cowperthwaite explaining my absence. I am quite unfit for work just now have several sad duties to perform tomorrow.

Very Respectfully,
Marcellus Coxe
